

Contents

1	Introduction	3
1.1	Principal aims of research	4
2	Research methods	5
2.1	Sampling	5
2.2	Procedures	5
2.3	Treatment of data	5
3	Levels and variations in conflict and violence	7
4	Types of incident	12
5	Factors influencing violence	15
6	Management style.	16
6.1	Firmness and fairness	16
6.2	Involvement and detachment	17
6.3	Monitoring and surveillance.	17
6.4	Anger control	17
6.5	Calming strategies.	18
6.6	Face-saving	18
6.7	Control strategies	18
6.8	Groups.	20
6.9	Limitations	20
7	House manager turnover	21
8	Characteristics of customers	24
8.1	Social class	24
8.2	Age of customers	24
9	Pool tables	26
10	Design features	27
10.1	Colour.	27
10.2	Lay-out and monitoring	29
11	Alcohol and violence	31
12	Frustration	33
13	Closing time	34
14	Selection and training	35
15	Summary and conclusions	37
15.1	Improving management standards.	37
15.2	Improving staff skills	38
15.3	Avoiding design faults.	38
15.4	Reducing frustration.	38
15.5	Improving liaison and communication	39